Supplementary Table S1. Item statistics of the Thai version of the USSQ (assessment with the stent in situ)

Domain / item	Mean	SD	Corrected item–total r	α if item deleted
Urinary symptoms — All participants with complete responses; n = 109; Cronbach's α = 0.76 (95% CI 0.69–0.82)
U1	3.28	0.95	0.33	0.75
U2	2.68	1.04	0.22	0.77
U3	2.26	0.99	0.51	0.73
U4	2.32	1.14	0.44	0.74
U5	2.15	0.95	0.24	0.76
U6	2.37	1.06	0.45	0.74
U7	2.51	1.03	0.57	0.72
U8	2.33	1.03	0.59	0.72
U9	2.28	1.00	0.59	0.72
U10	2.54	0.93	0.67	0.71
U11	4.19	1.55	0.14	0.80
Pain index — Participants reporting pain with complete responses (P3 = VAS); n = 104; Cronbach's α = 0.89 (95% CI 0.85–0.92)
P3	6.17	2.04	0.67	0.90
P4	3.09	1.18	0.74	0.87
P5	2.62	1.15	0.69	0.87
P6	2.54	1.17	0.73	0.87
P7	2.46	1.21	0.72	0.87
P8	2.37	1.09	0.72	0.87
P9	2.39	1.10	0.72	0.87
General health — All participants; n = 119; Cronbach's α = 0.82 (95% CI 0.76–0.86)
G1	2.90	1.08	0.47	0.81
G2	2.58	1.05	0.56	0.79
G3	2.20	1.15	0.68	0.77
G4	2.16	1.18	0.57	0.79
G5	2.19	1.22	0.60	0.78
G6	2.07	1.13	0.61	0.78
Work performance (quality of work) — Employed participants with complete responses; n = 61; Cronbach's α = 0.86 (95% CI 0.79–0.91)
W5	3.00	1.28	0.83	0.73
W6	3.33	1.21	0.79	0.77
W7	3.26	1.38	0.62	0.93
Sexual matters (quality of sex) — Sexually active participants (S1 = yes); n = 16; Cronbach's α = 0.88 (95% CI 0.67–0.96)
S3	2.56	1.55	0.79	—
S4	2.44	1.63	0.79	—

Abbreviations: SD, standard deviation; USSQ, Ureteral Stent Symptom Questionnaire. Scoring follows the developer's manual. Pain index items P3 (visual analogue scale, 0–10) and P4–P9 among participants reporting pain; quality of work (W5–W7) among participants in paid work; quality of sex (S3, S4) among participants with an active sex life. Statistics are based on participants with complete responses for the domain. α if item deleted is not applicable for two-item scales. 95% CIs for α calculated using Feldt's method. Corrected item–total r is the correlation between each item and the sum of the remaining items in the domain.
