EDITORIAL

This third issue of Thai Journal of Obstetrics and Gynaecology (TJOG) contains many interesting articles. The special article in this issue is “Pre-implantation Genetic Testing for Aneuploidy (PGT-A)”.

RTCOC Annual Meeting 2020 will be held during 14-16 October 2020 at The Royal Jubilee Building, Bangkok, Thailand. The theme of this meeting is “50 Years Golden Jubilee RTCOC: New Normal!” All RTCOC members are cordially invited to participate this scientific meeting.

Residents who would like to publish their researches in TJOG should submit their works before September 30, 2020. Our editorial team and constructive reviewers will let them know the results before December 31, 2020.

The quality of Thai Journal of Obstetrics and Gynaecology has been improved. Thai Journal of Obstetrics and Gynaecology has been indexed in many database: Scopus, TCI, ASEAN Citation Index, DOAJ, EuroPub, and Google Scholar.

Wish to see you at RTCOC Annual Meeting 2020 at Dusit Thani Pattaya Hotel, Chonburi, Thailand

Wish RCOG members and families safe from COVID-19.
