Thai Journal of Obstetrics and Gynaecology
May 2021, Vol. 29, No. 3, pp. 121

EDITORIAL

This third issue of Thai Journal of Obstetrics and Gynaecology 2021 contains many interesting articles. One special article is "(Our) World with COVID-19".

Editor in Chief and managing staff of the Thai Journal of Obstetrics and Gynecology were invited by the Thai Journal Citation Index (TCI) Center to attend "the 4th Thai Journal System Development and Quality Improvement Project in the Scopus Database" on Thursday, April 1, 2021 at Eastin Grand Hotel, Sathorn, Bangkok. The objective of the meeting was to improve the quality of research articles from 47 Thai journals in the Scopus database, including creating a career path to a professional editor in Thailand. The quality of Thai Journal of Obstetrics and Gynaecology is continuously rising.

Due to the pandemic of COVID-19, Royal Thai College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists (RTCOG) midyear Meeting 2021 has been cancelled. All RTCOG members please keep yourself and others safe from COVID-19: social distancing, maintain at least a 1-metre distance, make wearing a mask a normal part, regularly and thoroughly clean your hands with an alcohol-based hand rub or wash them with soap and water, avoid touching your eyes, nose and mouth, cover your mouth and nose with your bent elbow or tissue when you cough or sneeze, and avoid crowded or indoor settings.
