
EDITORIAL

This fifth issue of Thai Journal of Obstetrics and Gynaecology (TJOG) contains many interesting articles. The special article in this issue is “Challenges in Research Practices during COVID-19 Pandemic”.

Editor in Chief and managing staff of the TJOG were invited by the Thai Journal Citation Index (TCI) Center to attend a meeting to discuss “Using the System EM/Reviewer Discovery/Publons” on August 17, 2020 via electronic media system. The objective was to improve the quality of journals in the Scopus database for the management of the submission system as well as the selection of qualified persons from different countries become an appraiser articles to improve management quality and the quality of articles in Thai journals.

Residents who would like to publish their researches in TJOG should submit their works before September 30, 2021. Our editorial team and constructive reviewers will let them know the results before December 31, 2021.

Due to the pandemic of COVID-19, please get the COVID-19 vaccination and still keep yourself and others safe from COVID-19.

Wish all RTCOG members and families safe from COVID-19.

Prof. Vorapong Phupong, M.D.
Editor in Chief